Wayne Art Center Announces Fall Pottery Sale and Studio Fundraiser

November marks the annual Wayne Art Center Pottery Sale, celebrating its fourth year. The weekend long festivities commence on Friday, November 7th from 3 pm to 7 pm, continues on Saturday, November 8th from 10 am to 5 pm, and ending on Sunday, November 9th from 11 am to 3 pm. In addition to a large variety of local artists' handmade ceramics for sale, there will be raffle baskets and 50/50 tickets for purchase, a mug sale featuring the work of Wayne Art Center ceramic students, and a studio equipment Silent Auction and supply sale. As always, live demonstrations from Wayne Art Center instructors, studio tours and information on upcoming ceramic classes and workshops will continue through the weekend.

This year's highlights include a Friday opening night Happy Hour with Espresso Martinis, Cold Brew and Cucumber Mint Lemonade courtesy of the Framers Café. Adding to the evening's entertainment will be live music from The Percolators, a New Orleans style party band, from 4 to 6 pm. Refreshments will also be available including various snacks and baked goods. Doors open early on Saturday, November 8 with a continuation of the ceramic sales. The weekend's events conclude on Sunday, November 9, with the Framers Café offering Cold Brew, Vietnamese Coffee and Coffee Slushies and conducting a Coffee Seminar from 1 to 1:30 pm.

The Wayne Art Center Pottery Sale is an annual fundraiser for the Ceramic Studio. Past year's events have helped with the purchase of new kilns and additional resources that make the Wayne Art Center Ceramic Studio one of the best in the area. "We have an incredible number of talented ceramic teachers, and the loyalty of their students is unbelievable," said Eva Hozinez, Wayne Art Center's Ceramic Studio Manager. "We have become a family of sorts, and I am grateful for their continued support and contributions to this much anticipated yearly event."

Since its founding in 1931, Wayne Art Center, a non-profit organization, has been dedicated to enriching the community through the arts. Wayne Art Center remains steadfast in its mission to afford artists and the broader region an interdisciplinary venue to explore, share and learn, while fostering a sense of camaraderie for arts education and appreciation. More than 500 classes and workshops are offered annually to over 5,000 students of all ages and abilities. The galleries receive over 35,000 visitors a year for their many exhibits, lectures and special events. Future exhibitions, December 6th – January 24th , CraftForms 2025, 30th International Juried Exhibition of Contemporary Fine Craft, Living with Craft, and Attraction to Abstraction will be on view at Wayne Art Center located at 413 Maplewood Avenue, Wayne, PA 19087. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday, 10 am-5 pm and Saturday, 10 am-4 pm. For more information, please visit www.wayneart.org or call 610-688-3553.
