March 30-April 26, 2025
Wayne Art Center Galleries

Wayne Art Center is pleased to present the 2025 Regional Juried Spring Open Exhibition with work in all mediums on display in the art center's Davenport, Ethel Sergeant Clark Smith and Vidinghoff and Radnor Township Lobby Galleries thru April 26, 2025. This exhibition includes nearly 200 paintings, drawings, works on paper, photography, mixed media works, ceramics, sculpture, jewelry, metals, fiber and works utilizing 3D printing technology created by artists from the mid-Atlantic region states of Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia. All works are available for purchase.

Wayne Art Center was honored to have Juror Christine Lafuente select the work that comprises this stunning biennial exhibition. Lafuente reviewed over 1,000 images online submitted by nearly 500 artists to select the 195 works by 195 artists invited for this exhibition. With regards to the work that was submitted for her consideration, Lafuente shares that she was "impressed, inspired and delighted by the range of materials, uniqueness of vision, level of craftsmanship, intelligence, and humor found throughout the online applications.” Lafuente is an artist, curator, educator and writer. She received her MFA from Brooklyn College and has won numerous grants and awards, including a Juror’s Award for Excellence from the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. Known for a masterful depiction of light, use of color and for expressive and rich brushwork, her paintings are represented by Somerville Manning Gallery in Delaware and can be found in several public collections including Princeton University and ARCO Chemical Company, Philadelphia. Lafuente lives and works in Brooklyn, NY and spends her summers painting in Maine.

“The Regional Spring Open Juried exhibition has been an integral part of Wayne Art Center’s repertoire of exhibitions for over 40 years. We are honored to have Christine Lafuente’s participation as juror for the 2025 Regional Spring Open Juried Exhibition and pleased to showcase the recent works of nearly 200 talented artists from the Mid-Atlantic region. This year's not to be missed exhibition is very impressive, featuring an eclectic display of works, representing a unique collection of diverse styles and mediums," said Nancy Campbell, Wayne Art Center's Executive Director who encourages the community to visit WAC in April while the exhibition is on view.

Visitors are invited to view the exhibition through April 26, 2025. Wayne Art Center galleries are open Monday-Friday 10am-5pm and Saturday 10am-4pm.
