

WAYNE ART CENTER

Evening of music for strings April 3

WAYNE » The Wayne Art Center String Orchestra will present a concert at 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 3, at 413 Maplewood Avenue, Wayne. The performance is free and open to the public.

Under the direction of conductor and Wayne resident Joyce S. Prichard, music from Arcangelo Corelli's Concerto Grosso, Op. 6, No. 8, Antonio Vivaldi's Allegro in D, Gustav Holst's Brooke Green Suite, and John Williams' Rey's Theme will be performed.

The Wayne Art Center String Orchestra is comprised of talented young adult string players who auditioned for selection. Students from Haverford High School, Lower Merion High School, Harriton High School, Marple Newtown High School, Radnor High School, Upper Darby High School, Archbishop Carroll High School, Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy and the Independent Home Education Program were selected for the advanced performing group.

Around town

The Main Line Newcomers Club

The Main Line Newcomers Club Speaker Series will present an evening with Julie Terrana at 7 p.m. Thursday, April 6 at Ludington Library in Bryn Mawr. Life is filled with changes: career changes, children, divorce, retirement, death of loved ones, etc. In her talk, "Debunking Common Financial Myths for Women in Transition," Terrana will address the financial issues we face and concerns we have as our lives change. Terrana has been a financial advisor since 2008. For more information, visit MainLineNewcomers.org.

Easttown Library events

- On Saturday, April 1, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friends of Easttown Library present The Easttown Open II. This fundraiser will bring individuals and families of the community together for a day of fun and games and to raise money for our library, a valued and essential community resource. Tickets will be available at the door ($10 per person, $40 per family). Special thanks to the Presenting Sponsor, Eadeh Enterprises, and the Hole-in-one Sponsor, Minuteman Press.

Later in the day from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. the 19th Hole Happy Hour Party (ages 21+) will be held. Adults are welcome to play a round of mini golf, enjoy food, drink, golf-swing analysis, massage, hole-in-one contest, and enter to win a raffle. Tickets are $25 per person and can be purchased in the library or online at www.easttownlibrary.org. Special thanks to the 19th Hole Presenting Sponsor, Isolite.

- On Sunday, April 2nd at 2 p.m. Orchestra Concordia, an adult community orchestra in residence at the Wayne Art Center, will present "A delightful variety of music for early spring." Registration is not required for concerts.

- American Realists: Artists Portraying the World Around Them as They Saw It" at Easttown Library

- On Wednesday, April 5 at 7 p.m. Join local author, Fred Dixon, as he discusses eight artists from the late 19th and 20th centuries that captured the American scene in a wide range of ways. Learn about several realist styles and subjects. Dixon is a former Barnes Foundation docent, art collector, and wrote 700 Years of Art History: PreRenaissance to Modernism. Book sale and signing to follow talk. Registration is required; visit www.easttownlibrary.org to register online.

History of Philadelphia rowing

Dotty Brown, author of Boathouse Row: Waves Of Change In The Birthplace Of American Rowing, will talk about her new book at the Radnor Township Building, 301 Iven Avenue, Radnor, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 4. The author event is presented by Radnor Memorial Library and co-sponsored by Radnor Historical Society.

Former Philadelphia Inquirer reporter and rower Dotty Brown delves river-deep into the history of the city's rowing culture and the landmark clubhouses built to further it, as well as some of the city's most enduring characters. It is the first book to lift the curtain on the little-known culture and history of Philadelphia's iconic 19th century landmark, revealing stories of passion and perseverance along with hard-won victory.

With more than 160 photographs, Boathouse Row chronicles the "waves of change" as various groups of different races, classes, and genders fought for access to rowing on the Schuylkill river and the sport itself.

Books will be available for purchase. Registration is not required.

Evening of acoustic music

Trinity Presbyterian Church in Berwyn continues its Spotlight Concert Series at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 25 with In-The-Round & On-The-Road featuring Craig Bickhardt, Thom Schuyler (Songwriter Hall of Fame), and Jack Sundrud (Poco).

The three veteran singer-songwriters unite on stage for one evening of great acoustic music and often hilarious stories about their songs and careers. All are welcome to this free will concert.

Trinity Presbyterian Church is at 640 Berwyn Ave, Berwyn PA, 19312. For more details visit: <http://spotlight.trinityberwyn.com>.

Domestic Abuse support network

A weekly support group for survivors of domestic abuse takes place on the Main Line. The group is facilitated by a professional counselor. For information, contact 610-405-7080.

PETS LOOKING FOR PEOPLE

Dexter: Always up for a snuggle

Dapper Dexter is quite the catch, and here's why: This boy is the quintessential lap cat always up for a snuggle and a behind-the-ears scratch. A quiet boy by nature, Dex will happily accept your loving ministrations, but, humble as he is, he will graciously wait until the time is right for you to reach out to him. This lad also has an appetite for treats so party on.

Dexter is socially inclusive so he enjoys pals of both the four-legged and two-legged kind and doesn't mind if you're a big kid at heart or a little kid in age. Nine years young this terrific guy came from a truly loving home, but, due to severe allergies being suffered by a newborn baby in the family, Dexter needed to be relocated. Sweep Dex off his feet and give him a place in your heart!
