

Private Lessons

Art and Music Enrichment

While Wayne Art Center fosters social connections and a supportive environment for sharing work and receiving feedback, we understand that sometimes artists of all ages need more personalized attention. Private lessons with our experienced teachers help get students started with new media and provide focused attention on specific techniques.

We can arrange private and semi-private lessons in fine arts, including drawing, painting*, ceramics, printmaking, and other special media, as well as cooking classes to meet individual needs. And our robust music program welcomes new students for weekly private lessons throughout the year.

To connect with an instructor who can meet your needs, please contact info@wayneart.org or call 610-688-3553.
