

TEEN VOLUNTEER/ INTERN PROGRAM SUMMARY (as of 1/2023):

Wayne Art Center's TEEN Volunteer and Summer Art Camp program is in its 39th year. The camp offers 10 one-week sessions that run M-F, 9:30am-3:00pm, starting June 12th through August 18th.

Before being accepted into the SAC 2023 TEEN Volunteer Program, we schedule an in-person interview, review your availability, art interests and experience working with children. If accepted into the program, a commitment contract is sent to each TEEN based on their summer availability and matching preferences.

We expect our TEEN volunteers to commit to at least one full week, arrive by 9:00am and stay through 3:30pm. Many returning volunteers sign-up all summer, while some commit to just a few weeks, and others might join with a friend. Our TEEN Volunteer Availability Form (see attached) allows for flexibility and summer vacations.

Once chosen to be a TEEN Volunteer, attendance at the orientation meeting is expected. The meeting is usually held in May, after school and lasts approximately 1 hour. During orientation we go through expectations, answer questions, tour the different studios, explain where various art supplies are stored, go over sign in/ out procedures, and more.

Studio assignments for TEEN volunteers are posted every Monday morning before the start of each camp week. The schedule is hung above the volunteer sign-in book. After signing-in and putting on an apron and nametag, volunteers are introduced to their art teacher. TEEN volunteer duties include: prep classrooms, cut paper, set-up art supplies, assist teachers and students with projects, monitor campers outside during lunch-time, help with tie-dye, clean up, etc.

Above is an outline of the program but if other questions arise, please feel free to inquire. We appreciate your interest and contacting the Wayne Art Center regarding our TEEN Volunteer Program.
